

Iowa Department of Administrative Services – Human Resources Enterprise
Job Classification Description

Administrative Law Judge 1

Definition

Performs trainee-level duties in conducting contested case hearings; performs related work as required.

The work examples and competencies listed below are for illustrative purposes only and not intended to be the primary basis for position classification decisions.

Work Examples

Presides over and conducts contested case appeal hearings in accordance with the Iowa Administrative Procedure Act (IAC Ch. 17A) to ensure the judicial review of agency action compliance with department-enforced state and federal laws and regulations.

Conducts hearings to review and decide claims regarding issues such as offender disciplinary action, unemployment insurance, whistleblowing, eligibility, environmental protection, enforcement of health and safety regulations, etc.

Prepares accurate, logical written findings of fact and conclusions of law.

Ascertain pertinent facts by questioning witnesses and reviewing documents.

Facilitates direct examination, cross-examination, and further examination.

Rule on legal motions, admissibility of evidence, and methods of conducting testimony.

Issue subpoenas to compel attendance of witnesses and production of papers/records

Prepares written findings of facts and proposed decisions based on evaluation of pertinent facts and application of appropriate provisions of law and established precedents.

Research and analyze laws, regulations, policies, and precedent decisions to prepare for hearings and to determine conclusions.

Competencies Required

Knowledge:

- Law and Government – Laws, legal codes, court procedures, precedents, government regulations, executive orders, agency rules, and the democratic political process.
- English Language – The structure and content of the English language, including the meaning and spelling of words, rules of composition, and grammar.
- Basic Arithmetic – Addition, subtraction, multiplication, and division.

Abilities:

- Law and Government – Understand and adhere to applicable laws, legal codes, administrative rules, and regulations.
- Oral Expression – Communicate information and ideas in speaking so others will understand.

- Oral Comprehension – Listen to and understand information and ideas presented through spoken words and sentences.
- Deductive Reasoning – Apply general rules to specific problems to produce answers that make sense.
- Inductive Reasoning – Combine pieces of information to form general rules or conclusions.

Skills:

- Critical Thinking – Using logic and reasoning to identify the strengths and weaknesses of alternative solutions, conclusions or approaches to problems.
- Reading Comprehension – Understanding written sentences and paragraphs in work related documents.
- Writing – Communicating effectively in writing as appropriate for the needs of the audience.
- Negotiation – Bringing others together and trying to reconcile differences.
- Active Learning – Understanding the implications of new information for both current and future problem solving and decision-making.
- Judgment and Decision Making – Considering the relative costs and benefits of potential actions to choose the most appropriate one.
- Complex Problem Solving – Identifying complex problems and reviewing related information to develop and evaluate options and implement solutions.

Minimum Qualification Requirements

Applicants must meet at least one of the following minimum requirements to qualify for positions in this job classification:

- 1) Graduation from an accredited four-year college or university with a degree in any field, and experience equal to three years of full-time quasi-judicial or closely-related work involving either conducting legal investigations to obtain evidence or hearing cases relative to specific organizational programs and rendering decisions or recommending action for the disposition of cases.
- 2) A total of seven years of education and/or full-time experience (as described in number one), where thirty semester hours of accredited college or university course work in any field equals one year of full-time experience.
- 3) Graduation from an accredited school of law.
- 4) Current, continuous experience in the state executive branch that includes experience equal to eighteen months of full-time work involving quasi-judicial policy or program administrative hearings (review of records and briefs or questioning witnesses to obtain facts, admit or exclude evidence, rule on objections, and prepare written findings of fact and decisions).

Notes

Persons newly employed to preside over contested case proceedings in the Administrative Hearings Division of the Department of Inspections and Appeals must possess a current, active license to practice law in Iowa.

Effective date: 04/18 KJ