The Suburban Outlaw production of Erma Bombeck: At Wit's End, is a quick-witted, uplifting story recounting the life of America columnist and humorist, Erma Bombeck. The play draws its title from Bombeck's popular "At Wit's End" nationally syndicated column, which was published in 900 newspapers nationwide. The story recounts the voice of a generation of unheard homemakers who elevated their joys and struggles to a platform where they could be seen and heard.
