ARTICLE VII TRANSFERS

[Current contract language with the exception of the following Section:]

SECTION 2 Transfers Within Employing Units

When the Employer decides to fill a permanent vacancy as defined by Section 4, the Employer shall post the vacancy for a period of five (5) working days. The posting shall include specific information including the position number, specific job duties, location, county or counties, standard working hours and shift. Vacancy notices shall be posted within the employing unit in all offices, where there are eligible employees, on bulletin boards customarily used for these purposes as well as electronically via existing individual department intranet or email services. Eligible employees shall be required to file a written request during the posting period on a transfer request form in order to be considered for the vacancy. Following the five (5) day posting period, the Employer shall transfer the most senior employee who has filed a transfer request for the vacant position, provided the employee possesses the ability to perform the duties as assigned and meets any special or selective certification requirements. The Employer may deny transfers if the transfers would substantially impair the Employer's ability to maintain operational efficiency. The employee must accept the transfer when offered if the employee has not removed the transfer request before the close of the five (5) day posting period. There shall be no probationary period for any such transfer. For purposes of transfers the employing unit shall be as set forth in Appendix B.

This Section shall not apply to classifications which solely exist in one employing unit.

ARTICLE VIII HOURS OF WORK

SECTION | Work Schedules

Work schedules are defined as an employee's assigned hours, days of the week, days off, and shift rotations. Nothing herein shall be considered as a guarantee of the number of hours of work per day or per work period.

Work schedules shall be set in advance for not less than a two (2) week period. Once an employee's schedule has been approved, the Employer can reschedule only for purposes other than avoiding compensatory time except with the approval of the employee. Whenever possible, the Employer will provide twenty-four (24) hours notice prior to requiring work outside the work schedule. Such notice shall be non-grievable. Employees must receive prior management approval before working any hours in excess of forty (40) hours in any work week. Written notice may be provided through electronic communication.

Where practical and feasible as determined by management, with consent of the employee, hours and schedules for bargaining unit employees may include:

- 1. Variable starting and ending times.
- 2. Compressed work week such as: 4 ten hour days 4 nine hour days and 1 four hour day
- 3. Other mutually agreeable flexible hour concepts.

SECTION 2 Compensatory Time/Overtime

All employees in the bargaining unit, not otherwise eligible for time and one-half compensation for all hours worked over forty (40), shall be granted hour-for-hour compensatory time for all hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours in pay status in any work week. Compensatory time for employees in the science unit, who are FLSA exempt, will be computed on an hour for hour basis for all hours actually worked based on an eighty (80) hour pay period. Compensatory time shall be credited to the employee's account and shall be utilized or paid out in cash at the request of the employee with the approval of management, however, the Employer may require employees to take cash payments rather than earned compensatory time, as such time accrues, after the accumulation of ninety (90) hours of compensatory time in the employee's account. Such approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. If an employee is unable to utilize earned compensatory time by June 30 of the calendar year, the Employer will pay the employee in cash for all unused compensatory time. If budgetary considerations dictate, the Employer may direct employees to use their earned compensatory time between June 1 and June 30 with the exception of: The Employer may designate a date other than the expiration of the State's fiscal year for purposes of utilization of compensatory time. For those work units where other than the State's fiscal year is utilized, the Employer will so notify the Union.

- a. Natural Resources Biologists in the Fisheries Bureau who may be directed to use their earned compensatory time by March 31.
- b. Environmental Specialists and Environmental Specialist Seniors in the Department of Inspections and Appeals may be directed to use their earned compensatory time by March 31.

Notwithstanding the above, employees in the job class of Criminalist shall be granted compensatory time at the rate of one and one-half hours for each hour worked in excess of forty (40) hours actually worked in any work week. Employees who use approved vacation, compensatory leave, or personal leave days after 40 hours in pay status in a work week will be paid at their straight time rate for the leave used and the leave will be deducted from their leave balances. If an employee, after working forty (40) hours in a work week, requests and is approved for sick leave with less than forty-eight (48) hours advanced notice, such time shall not be deducted from the employee's sick leave account and the employee shall not be paid for such hours. However, leaves approved pursuant to this paragraph shall not be included in the computation of compensatory time earned.

SECTION 85 Paid Annual Leave of Absence (Vacations)

[Paragraphs A, B and C, current contract language]

D. In scheduling vacation (annual leave), choice of time and amount shall be governed by seniority as defined in Article V, provided employees submit their vacation requests at least sixty (60) days in advance. Vacation requests submitted less than sixty (60) days in advance will be granted on a first come, first served, basis. Vacation requests will be answered within five (5) working days from the date of receipt unless such requests are submitted more than sixty (60) days in advance, which will be granted or denied on day sixty (60) without regard to any pending approvals for vacation requests not yet at the 60th day. The parties recognize that the Employer has the right to determine the number of employees within each classification and work unit that may be on vacation at any given time; however, vacations shall be granted at times and in amounts most desired by employees whenever operations permit. Once vacation periods have been scheduled, the Employer shall make changes in employee vacation schedules only to meet emergencies or changes required for the implementation of this Section. In the event the Employer finds it necessary to cancel a scheduled vacation, the affected employee may reschedule his/her scheduling of his/her vacation into the ensuing calendar year as he/she desires, providing it does not affect other employees' vacation periods. Vacation must be taken by the employee if not rescinded at least forty-eight (48) hours in advance of the date and time in which the vacation is scheduled to begin. Every attempt will be made to grant employees vacation at the requested time. In the event of an illness or injury while an employee is on vacation leave, that portion of the vacation leave spent under the care of a physician may be substituted for and charged against the employee's accrued sick leave upon the employee's request and proof from the physician of an illness or injury and its duration.
